Striper have picked up on cut bait and for folks throwing big baits both swim and top waters. LMB are on the chew with a lunker caught weighed and verified at 11.1 pounds. Jon Salkeld of Castaic caught this big girl on the LUNKER PUNKER from shore over the weekend. His personal best to date.

Most bass are being taken on plastics on a slow retrieve and swim baits at top waters in the morning.

Striper are best in the morning but have shown to be hit and miss throughout the day.
